Chorus (sing srce da mi da 3x, ritard last time)

I search for another, but my heart refuses

He won't even know

I love another, my heart suffers

He feels as if he knows, as if he knows

I loved him, I loved him

I waited, waited for him to give me his heart

I need to ask when I give it to him

Everything, and I remain alone, remain alone

What to do when I give it to him

Everything, and I remain alone, remain alone

If I were born again

I would give him everything, give him everything

If I had to choose again

I would not choose another, not choose another
